

Do you want to share your Hep C story?

The Hepatitis C Personal Stories Workshop is a creative workshop for people living with Hep C to support the development of storytelling skills. By the end of the workshop, you will have the opportunity to use your storytelling skills to support advocacy efforts, increase awareness, and reduce stigma.

Details:

Session 1 for Peer Navigators:

Meets on Tuesdays 2-3pm (March 29, April 5, 12, 19, and 26)

Session 2 for anyone living Hep C:

Meets on Wednesdays 4-5pm (March 30, April 6, 13, 20, and 27)

You are welcome to join at any time.

Location: Mount Sinai Beth Israel, 10 Union Square East, New York, NY 10003
(Between 14 St and 15 St, next to Panera)

Trains: 4 5 6 6 L N Q to 14 St/Union Square; other routes with more walking F M to 14 St and 6 Ave, OR 1 2 3 to 14 St and 7 Ave.

The workshop is led by Columbia Narrative Medicine students.
This workshop is open to people who have lived with Hep C.

Want to join?

Call Diana at 347-396-2774 or e-mail ddiazmunoz@health.nyc.gov to register and for room information.

Organized by the Viral Hepatitis Program at the NYC Department of Health.

ATTENTION: This is not a support group. If you are seeking support regarding Hep B or Hep C, go to this webpage: bit.ly/NYCSupportGroup