

Common barriers and solutions to providing testing and treatment services

Giusseppe Quispe Ramos

Harlem United

January 24th, 2018

HARLEM UNITED

Barriers to testing and treatment

- Lack of information

- Provide health education before and during testing services

- Stigma

- Facilitate discussions about clients' concerns related to testing

- Redundancy of services

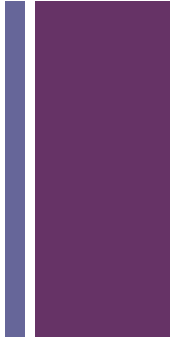

- Highlighting the clients' need for targeted services

Barriers to testing and treatment

- Lack of cultural competence
 - Providing culturally competent referrals
- Misaligned incentives
 - Demonstrating the value of the service
- Mistrust
 - Building rapport and establishing alliances in the community

■ Questions?