

HEP C IN PEOPLE LIVING WITH HIV IN NEW YORK CITY

KATE PENROSE, MS

SENIOR ANALYST, RESEARCH & EVALUATION

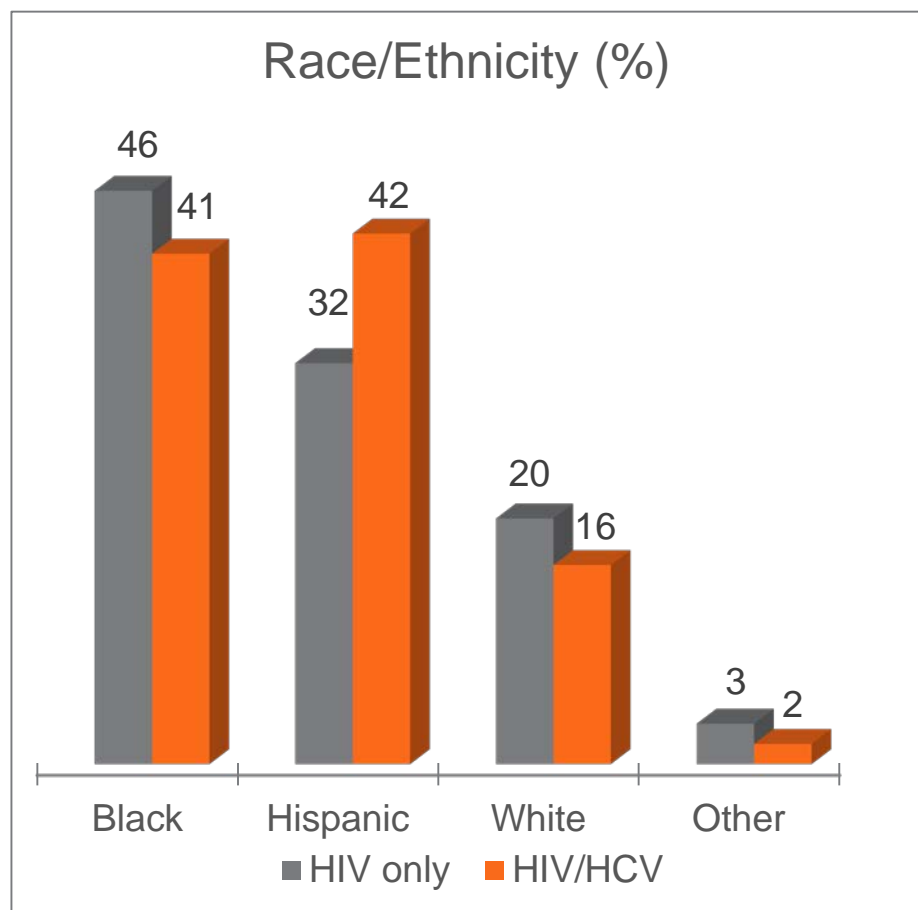

BHIV CARE & TREATMENT PROGRAM

HIV/HCV Co-infection Estimate for NYC, 2016

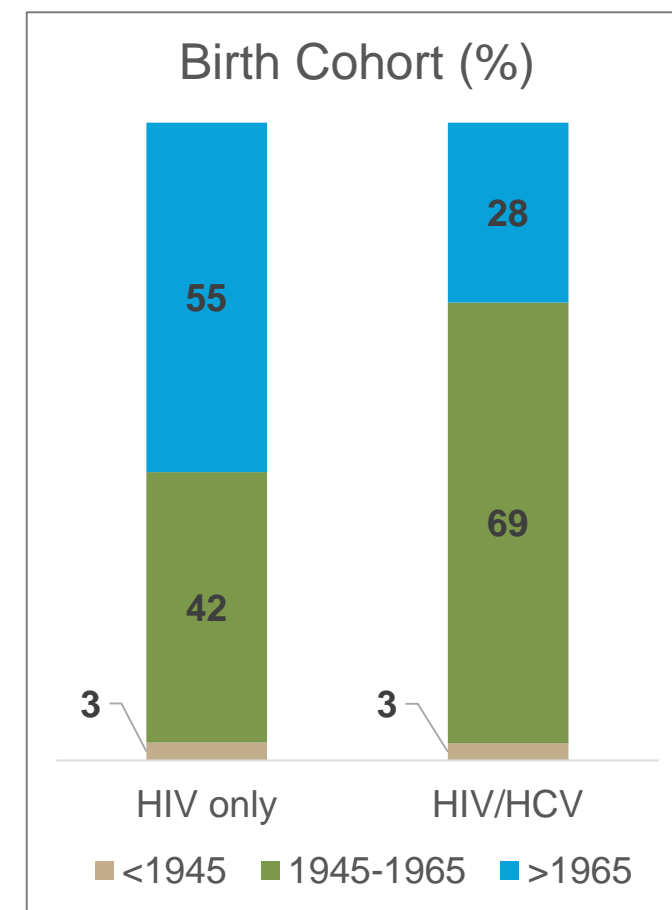

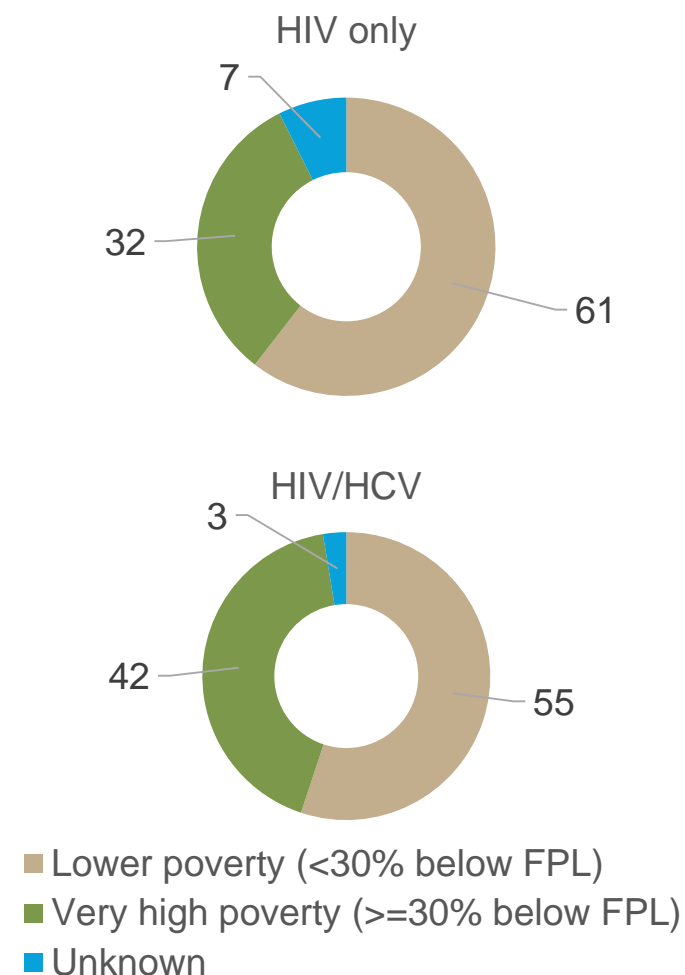

*To better account for out-migration and deaths, the number of individuals considered to be diagnosed and living in NYC has been restricted to people who had at least one HCV or HIV lab test reported since 2014 and weren't known to have died prior to 2017.

Characteristics of Co-infected Individuals in NYC, 2016

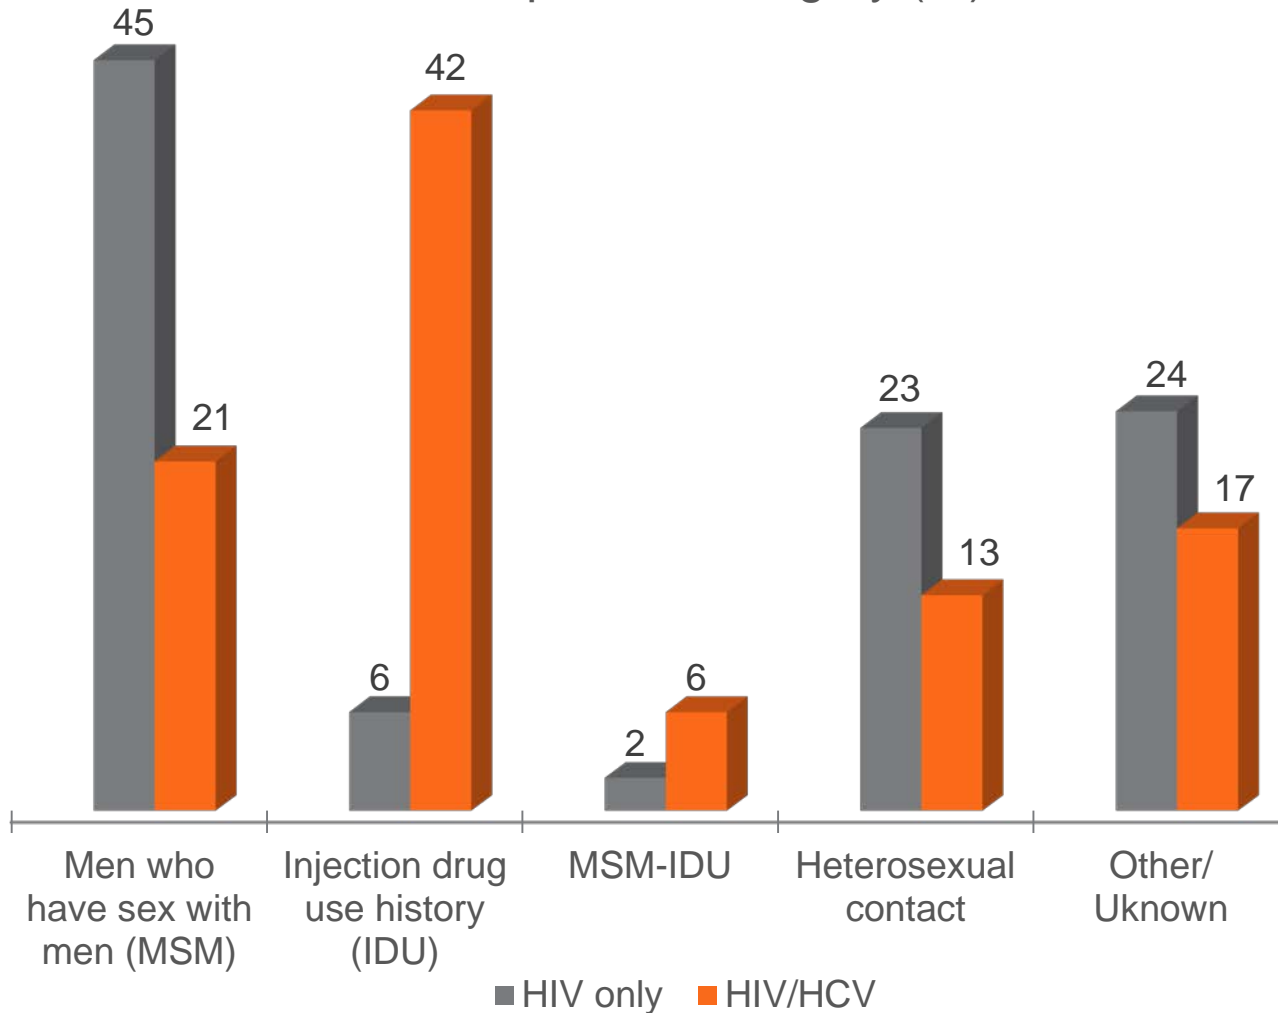

Area-based Poverty Level (%)

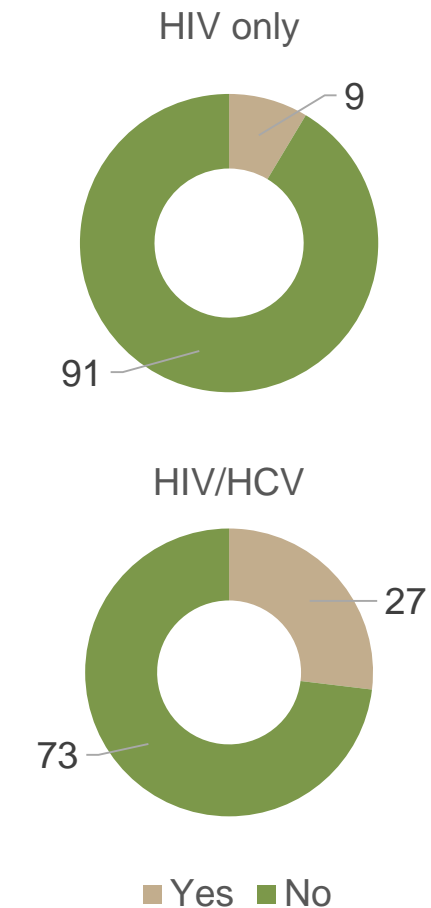

Characteristics of Co-infected Individuals in NYC, 2016

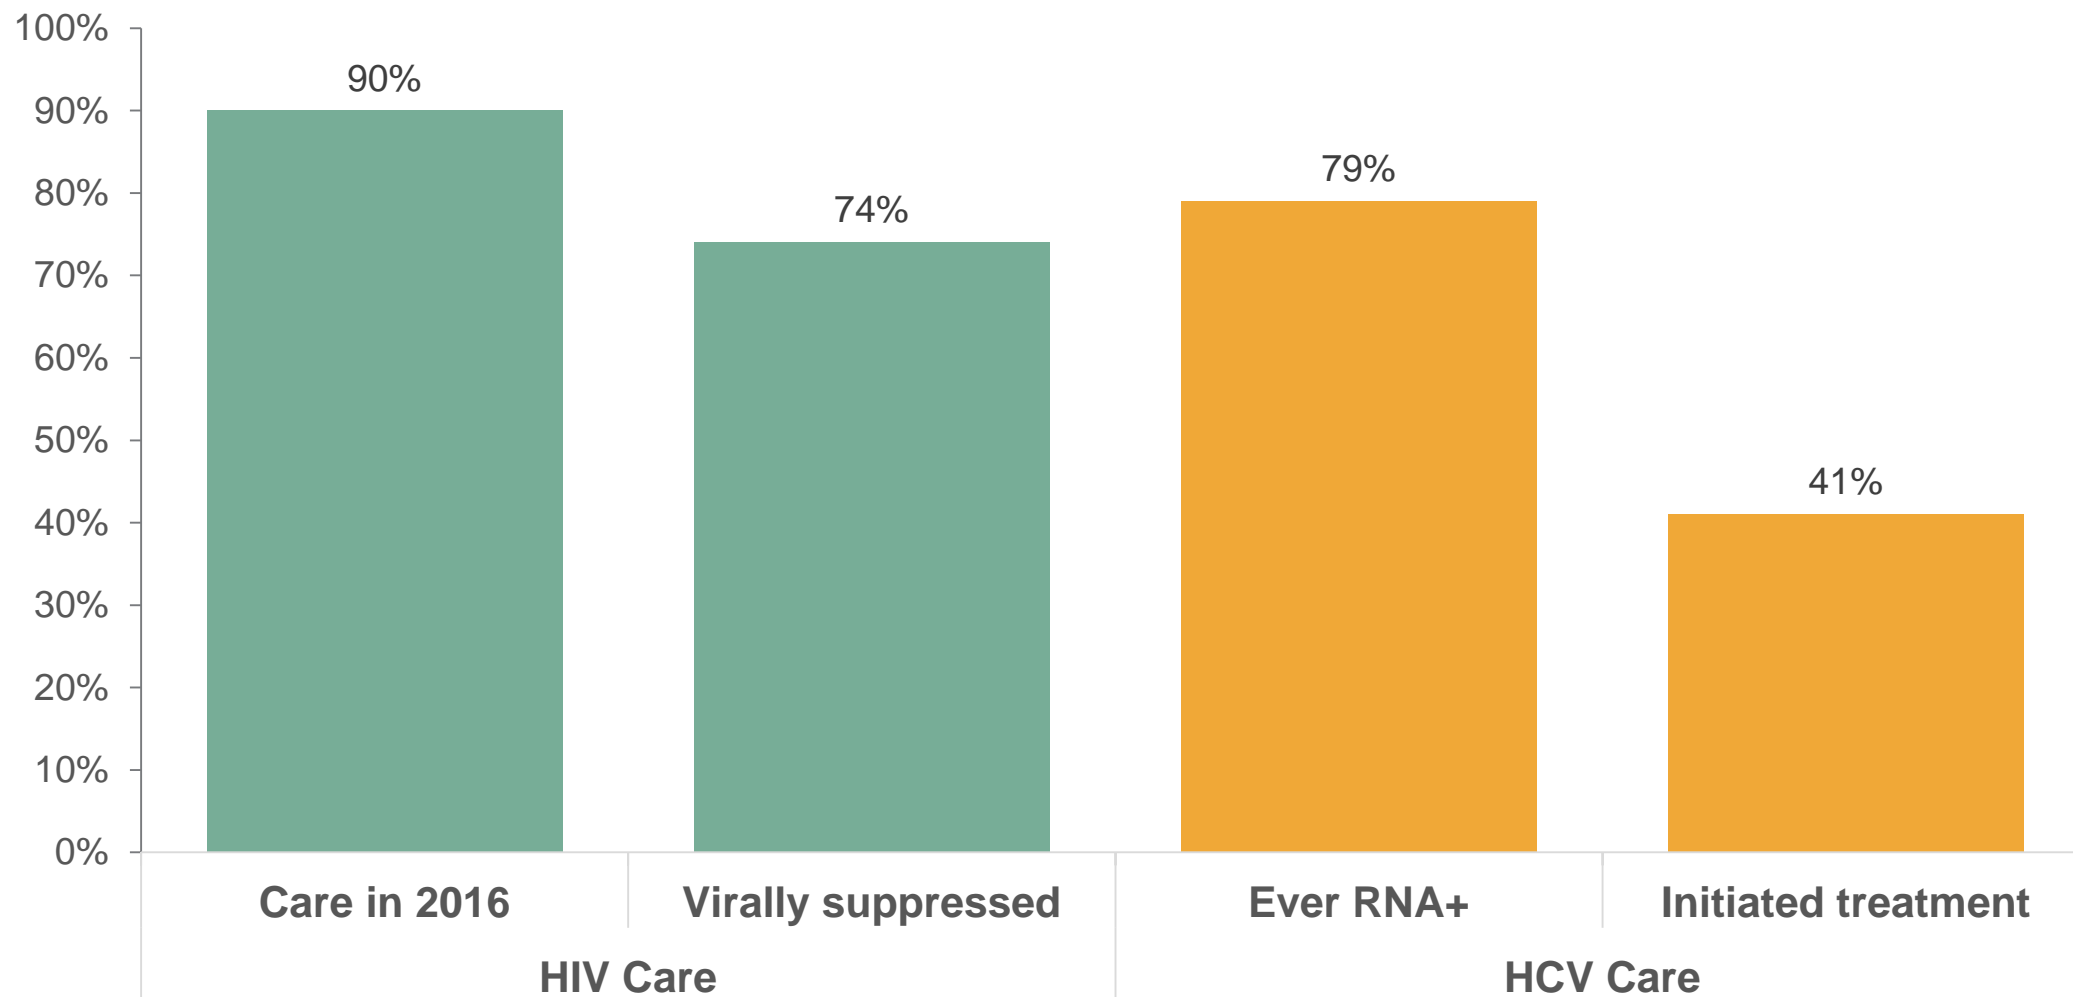

HIV Exposure Category (%)

History of Incarceration (%)

HIV and HCV Care Outcomes for Co-infected Individuals in NYC, 2016

~4,200 Individuals Currently Still Co-infected

- 84% in HIV Care
 - 56% established in care at largest HIV care facilities in NYC
 - 24% established in care at other facilities or receiving care at multiple facilities
 - 20% in sporadic care
- 16% out of HIV care
- 60% HIV virally suppressed